Grand High Priest's Message

Greetings Companions,

I bring you exciting news! For the first in 18 years your Grand Chapter has a New Chapter Under Dispensation. You may recall that by Grand Chapter Code the Charter for Vancouver Chapter # 9 was suspended. The companions of Vancouver Chapter have been in limbo for the past several years. With the publication of my edict putting Category 21 of the Proposed New Grand Chapter Code into effect, it became possible for nine companions to petition for a dispensation to regain the Charter for Vancouver or to form a new chapter. The decision was made by the companions requesting dispensation to form a new chapter as the best way to reestablish Capitular Masonry in Southwestern Washington.

My dispensation to allow the requesting companions to meet and work to obtain a Charter for Cowlitz Chapter was delivered in person at a meeting in Woodland on January 9th. I was moved by the joy expressed by the companions present when the dispensation was presented and the Chapter could be opened at their pleasure for such business as may become before it.

Companions, have you registered for Grand Sessions? If not, I encourage you to do so as this allows the LLC Grand Session Committee to better plan for the session and it allows our acting Grand Secretary to better judge the number of printings of the Pre-Convocation Packet.

I Remain Yours Sincerely and Fraternaly,

MEC Andrew J. Olson
Grand High Priest

Illustrious Grand Master's Message

Greetings Companions:

Here it is February already, and we are just three months away from the York Rite Grand Sessions. The registration forms and the agenda are available on the web site.

I again wish to remind all Recorders to furnish the Grand Recorder a list of all officers newly installed. Also, please notify the Focus Editor, RPC Bryan Bechler, of the newly installed Illustrious Masters and Recorders (name, phone number and email) so that the information in the Focus is correct

At my Official Visits, I am emphasizing several goals which are dear to my heart. Councils are encouraged to have educational programs at each meeting as the lessons of our degrees contain allegories and symbols with profound meanings. Freemasonry is superior to other fraternal and social orders in the lessons taught in the degrees and orders. The deeper meanings of the symbolism and philosophy of Freemasonry cannot be adequately covered in the degree presentation. To learn the lessons of Freemasonry requires much study. For this reason, the York Rite Sovereign College of North America has developed the Companion Adept of the Temple program to aid interested Companions in learning the deeper meanings of Freemasonry. A description and the enrollment form are available on their web site at: www.yrscna.org.

I am also encouraging communication with all members so that none will feel left out and forgotten even if for various reasons they are unable to attend and participate, and that includes those who are not electronically connected.

I encourage Councils to consider the various awards available which are listed in the Master of Arch Handbook and available on the Grand Council website. Although not yet incorporated, I also encourage the Illustrious Masters to consider the Ish Sodi award. This award is designed to recognize a Companion who has been particularly helpful to the Illustrious Master in assisting him and in providing advice when requested. It is accompanied by a very nice medal and certificate.

We wish you and yours the very best in the coming months.

Grand Commander's Message

Greetings Sir Knights!

February already! This year is flying by. What is the status of your Commandery's plans and projects for the remainder of this 2018 – 2019 Templar year?

So often times we get busy and wrapped up in all the things going on that we forget a very special day that happens this month. Yes, I mean Valentine's Day. We might remember the day, and get the cards, flowers and candy, but do we really remember the day, and why we celebrate it?

In our busy lives it is all too easy to forget the most important thing in our lives after our relationship with our Lord and His Son, our loved ones, our families. How often have we pushed them aside because we have a meeting, or a game, or work? How frequently do we rush past without acknowledging them or their greetings, their attempts at conversation or their attempts to share joy or concern? How often do we brush off their being a valued part of our lives, just for the sake of something "more pressing or important"? Was it really?

Our loved ones, our families, are gifts from God given to us for a reason. Sometimes that reason is readily apparent and sometimes it is just a mystery, but that matters not at all. They are ours and they should be acknowledged, valued and appreciated for all that they bring to our lives, be it rewards or challenges. This Valentine's Day please take the time to really celebrate your loved ones, not just with cards, candy and flowers, but with your attention and your person as well. Let them know that they are special to you and that you thank God for them and for having them in your life. Then, remembering that in Masonry we often hear "Family First", really put that cliché saying into practice and put family first in your life, right behind your duty to and relationship with God and His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

So, where does that leave Templary? How about right behind keeping food on the table and a roof over your head which follows family and your relationship with God and His Son. Our lives are a balancing act my Fraters. Is your life in balance? I pray it is. Masonry, and Templary in particular are important, yes, but they are but tools to assist us in being better men, and to assist us in helping others. Through Masonry and Templary we learn how to live better lives, but we are selling short if we do not share that with others.

Sharing takes on many methodologies. We share constantly through our words, deeds and actions. Are we sharing positively or are we sharing negatively? We share through helping others to see, to do, to learn, to shelter, to eat. Are we sharing or are we just paying lip service to sharing, or are we not even going that far?

Going back to Valentine's Day, are we as Templars sharing the bounties and the Love and the Light that we have been so graciously blessed with? Not only with our family, but with our friends, Brothers, Companions and Fraters, and as we should often hear: "every man has a claim on your kind offices, do good unto all." Seize the opportunity, make this Valentine's Day the renewed beginning of sharing Love and Light with all you come into contact with.

As your life continues to twist and turn through the changing of the seasons, do not put aside who and what we are in the ensuing crazy workload. Remember that we, each of us, are soldiers of Christ, and it is our obligated duty to walk the walk each and every day so that all will know who we love and serve. Every day is a day available to bring someone to Christ and to Templary through Masonry by our actions and example.

I look forward to seeing every one of you in His Service soon and may Peace be with you always!

2nd Corinthians 5:17.

Grace and Peace,

Greetings Companions from your Royal Arch Masons Children's Heart Foundation

January is behind us and February will be off to a fast start as we work to close the books on 2018 and look forward to what 2019 holds in store for us all.

A couple of updates. The office is currently being spruced up as well as we're working to finish up an inventory of supplies and promo material so we can get some new material created as needed. The budgets for 2019 look to be similar to 2018 with some additional clarification to line items so the companions will have a better understanding of what they are being used for.

Heart Beat Box—Each Chapter should have one, but if your Chapter does not please let us know as we have some available in the office and are happy to get to your chapter if needed.

We've received several thank you letters from our 2018 donations and have been invited to visit each location this summer to see how we are making a difference in the children's lives. We will make sure to get the word out regarding these visitations so others can attend as well. We'd love to have the Companions in these area's join us as you help make all of this possible.

We'll be having a Trustee meeting in March either on the 23rd or 30th in Ellensburg at the Palace Café so keep an eye our for confirmed date and time. This is a great opportunity to see firsthand the wonderful and hard work the Trustees are doing.

As always please feel free to ask questions as the more you know the better informed all of our companions will be.

February 2019

YORK RITE LIFE MEMBERSHIP MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

So far in 2018 York Rite bodies have purchased 15 new life memberships. YRLMMF assets are conservatively invested for long-term preservation of capital as well as current income. Returns on YRLMMF's investments of course vary from year to year. However, even in a good year in the stock market, the amount invested for most life memberships won't generate enough income to cover a life member's dues or per capita payment.

As York Rite bodies elect officers and plan for the coming year perhaps they will want to take a fresh look at what they are asking for life memberships. The Grand Codes of Chapter, Council and Commandery set minimum amounts for life memberships. Some individual chapters and councils have set higher amounts in their bylaws.

Royal Arch Code, Section 166 - minimum $150

Grand Council Code, Section 4.3061 BL - minimum $200

Grand Commandery Code, Section 12.0 sets out a sliding scale based on age.

Application forms for life membership can be found under the Forms tab on the website of all three grand bodies. New contributions for life memberships can be mailed to:

Also, you must make your room reservation directly with Little Creek over the phone. You CANNOT get the group rate by registering on-line.

A gentle reminder to all York Rite Masons that while the Fraternal aspect of our great organizations is superior, we must never forget the Business Aspects that allow us to survive in the 21st Century. This article is designed to inform you of some of the more important aspects of the Business of Masonry.

The business staff of the Chapters, Councils and Commanderys consists of the Secretary, Registrar, Recorder and the Treasurer. This also applies to the Grand Chapter, Grand Council and the Grand Commandery.

First, you must understand that the taking and posting of the minutes is the most visible of the Secretary's job, it is the least time consuming. The behind the scenes roles of the Secretary consumes hours and is little seen. Such things as receiving and answering the various communications, receiving the moneys due and assuring that current dues cards are transmitted, while less visible require an immense amount of time. Preparation of the budget in conjunction with the "man-in-the-east", the Treasurer and the Committee. The Secretary is typically the first person contacted when there is a question (generally has the answer). Managing the office, which is generally in the Secretary's home and keeping the significant other happy about the mess required more than a "yes dear". The Secretary is the front line person for all communications with the "the outside world". A simple look at the WEB page will tell you why.

The second arm of the business staff is the Treasurer. I maintain that every Masonic Body needs a Treasurer and we should never have a Secretary/Treasurer. One of the fundamentals of good financial management is the person who receives the money is not the person who signs the checks and the person who signs the check is not the person who balances the check book. By its very nature that requires three people, but it should always be more than one. Your group should establish who has access to the financial accounts of your body. That should be established in writing. It should always be the Treasurer, the Secretary and the "companion-in-the east" and possibly even the number two in the Fraternal line. You should demand a Treasurer's report at you monthly (or periodic) meeting. You should demand to “see” the budget. You should demand a balanced budget and even insist on voting on approval of the budget.

Our Masonic bodies are 501 c(10) bodies as established by the Internal Revenue Service. You do not pay taxes on related income, but may be required to pay taxes on unrelated income. (Ask yourself, is that raffle related to the fraternal business of your organization and are you in compliance with the Washington State criteria for such activities).

Your body is required to file and Information return with the IRS (990N, 990EZ or 990, depending on gross income and total assets). This filing is due on the 15th day of the 5th month following the close of your fiscal year. Not all fiscal years end on December 31st. Ask your Treasurer when your fiscal year closes. Failure to file can and will cause loss of the 501 c(10) and this has been the requirement since 2011. Ask the question of your Treasurer.

All the above is required. Who is responsible? I maintain the man-in-the east is responsible. Help protect you Secretary and Treasurer. Assure that an AUDIT is done each year. The Audit should be of ALL funds and to see that all required Administrative functions are being done in a timely matter. You cannot do a GOOD audit until you understand what is required.

REC Merle Iverson, Grand Treasurer

York Rite College Grand Governor's Message

Greetings Companion Knights—

Two of our Washington colleges return to the quarries to start off the 2019 Year. It is assumed that members will be returning to begin anew their work. Do you know that it requires nine members to open the college, and one of those nine must be a dais officer? I have attended some colleges where they are not sure if they can open because of these regulations. So, when you receive the meeting notice, especially you installed officers, please reply by letting your Governor or Secretary know if you will or will not be there. The Heralds and Craftsmen, should be working on the Appointed Officers Opening and Closing parts in case a pro-tem is necessary. Have you proposed any new candidates to your Governor?

Governors, if you have candidates waiting to be initiated, get it done now. Don't wait for a Special Class to be held; all colleges should be doing their own work. Any Companion Knight may proposed new candidates.

Mark your calendar that Rainier #54 and Tahoma #197 will be meeting this month on the first and fourth Saturday, respectively. Both colleges Open at 10:00AM with Rainier meeting in Stanwood and Tahoma in Federal Way. Hope to see you at these colleges in February and then at Kamiakin #28 the first Saturday in March. God Bless and safe travels,

God Bless.....

Washington Masonic Charities

Children’s Programs, Masonic Outreach Services, Masonic Library & Museum

Our Mission: Washington Masonic Charities invests in youth and education, provides comfort and support for seniors and those in need, and preserves and shares the Masonic Heritage of Washington State.

Masonic Outreach Services

Masons caring for Masons, their wives, and widows as they age has been a long and important tradition of Freemasonry. WMC’s Masonic Outreach Services program replaced the Masonic Retirement Center of Washington. In October of 2014 children’s programs and the Library & Museum merged with Masonic Outreach Services and formed Washington Masonic Charities. New staff joined WMC to provide positive energy for an effective, and relevant service that meets the needs of the Masonic community.

Masonic Outreach Services Program Purpose

The Masonic Outreach Services’ purpose is to help individuals stay at home as long as they can by providing information and support. When the time comes, staff are available to help individuals find the right path to make the transition into a higher level of care, and to provide limited financial assistance through our emergency needs service.

Services Provided

- Information & Referral – staff are available to assist individuals in identifying resources available to them in their community including care providers, housing options, support groups, nutrition and more.
- Assessments – Staff can visit individuals to assess their physical, financial, and social needs to make recommendations.
- Care Planning & Home Visits – Based on assessment, staff will prepare recommendations for individuals and assist in connecting them with services. When possible, our staff will visit people in their homes on a regular basis.
- Financial Benefits Application Assistance – Staff can assist in the preparation of benefits and entitlement applications for qualified individuals.
- Emergency Needs – Washington Masonic Charities can assist with one time emergency needs requests. We do this in coordination with their local lodge and the Grand Lodge.

Services are provided at no cost, but we do suggest a donation for assessment & evaluation, care planning, and benefits assistance services.

What Happened to the Masonic Retirement Center?

The Masonic Retirement Center of Washington (MRC) has been closed to residents for several years. Changes in building codes, costs for construction to meet those new requirements, and ongoing operational costs led the Grand Lodge of Washington to make the decision to close the facility. The MRC is owned by the Grand Lodge. The disposition of proceeds from any future sale of the MRC will be decided upon by the Grand Lodge.
